

Nebraska-Iowa Key Club District Events

Alex Hull, Nebraska-Iowa Key Club District Governor

The Nebraska-Iowa Key Club District hosts two major events annually: District Convention and Holiday Social. These are great events to have your Key Club participate in because they allow members from different clubs to discuss projects and new ideas to take back to their club. The intent of this article is to give you a good idea of what happens at these events.

The Key Club year begins and ends with District Convention. District Convention is held every year in the spring (generally in March) and lasts from a Friday evening to a Sunday morning. Key Club District Convention is much like the Kiwanis District Convention, because the new district officers are elected at the convention and many sessions and forums are held. What makes Key Club District Convention different is the amount of energy that the participants bring to the convention. This year's convention will be held in Omaha, NE at the Omaha Marriott: 10220 Regency Circle, Omaha, NE 68114. The date of the convention is March 23-25. This convention will be a special convention as well, because we will be welcoming the Key Club International President Shivani Radhakrishnan. Please join us if you can.

Holiday Social is held every year in November or December. It is an opportunity for Key Clubbers all over the Nebraska-Iowa District to participate in leadership building activities conducted by the district board. The event starts on a Saturday afternoon and wraps up on Sunday morning. The sessions put on by the board members include such things as: Key Club 101 sessions, service projects, team building activities and much more.
