

Camp OK (Olympia Kiwanis) 2006
JUNE 11-16, 2005 – 4-H Camp-Gretna, Nebraska
Counselor Interest Form

Rachel Haaland, Amber Redding, Wess Robotham, & Jason Villalobos
Camp Supervisors

Thank you for your interest in wanting to volunteer your time as a counselor at Camp OK this summer. Below is a list of responsibilities you must commit to if you are selected to be a counselor:

- You must complete this form.
- Camp OK will be held at the 4-H Camp near Gretna, Nebraska – JUNE 11-16, 2006. You must stay at the camp the entire camp days and must fulfill your assigned responsibilities each day. (Don't worry, you will get a few hours to your self each day).
- There will be Counselor Training in late May and or in June just before the camp. You are responsible for coming to training and if you cannot make it, you must meet the camp supervisors to go over the material you missed.
- While at the camp, your duties will include: being in charge of a cabin each night, traveling with and guiding a day group, eating every meal with your cabin, monitoring discipline during large group activities, playing with and monitoring campers during free time, and assisting camp directors when asked.
- Your energy and attention to the kids will be pivotal to CAMP OK. Your relationships to the kids will make them want to participate and will also provide them with the types of role models they will not soon forget after camp. We ask you to learn from this experience as much as the kids will learn from you and the camp itself.

Please complete the next page and return it to Jason Villalobos either via e-mail or regular mail no later than Saturday, MAY 6, 2006. Do not hesitate to contact Jason if you have any questions, comments, or concerns. Again, thank you for your interest.
