

PRESS RELEASE

Clubs in the Nebraska-Iowa District of Kiwanis International announce their endorsement and support for Kiwanis International's newest, biggest and best program – Key Leader. Key Leader is service leadership training with the mission “to inspire young people to achieve their personal best through service leadership.” Participants will focus on the five principles of integrity, growth, respect, building community, and pursuit of excellence.

Weekend camps are being offered at over 40 locations nationwide. Regional camps will be held on April 20-22, 2007 at Camp Hantesa, Boone, Iowa, and on November 2-4, 2007 at Eastern Nebraska 4-H Camp, Gretna, Nebraska.

Eligible students are those completing the 8th grade through senior high school. The participant must have a sponsor that will pay the registration fee of $160. This can be a Kiwanis club, any service club, church organization, school, etc. Registration is completed online at www.key-leader.org. Additional information may be obtained at this site or at www.nikiwanis.org.

Interested students are encouraged to contact _____ of the Kiwanis Club of _____ or District Chairperson, Ron Petsch, at 402-761-8213 or rrpetsch@alltel.net

MEDIA NOTE: Should you not be able to contact anyone locally, please contact: secretary@nikiwanis.org or call (712) 235-6453.
